

The Time to Think Foundation Course

This two-day course provides a complete introduction to the Thinking Environment.

You will discover new ways of leading, communicating and facilitating – including how to get the best ideas from everyone in the room. You'll learn principles and tools to increase engagement, navigate change and build a positive working culture that delivers for all.

Aims & Objectives

- Learn how group work can be transformed to generate fresh thinking and better outcomes
- Explore the Ten Components and the high-quality thinking these ten behaviours produce
- Advance your skill in communicating, facilitating and getting the best from others
- Understand how these ideas can transform the groups with whom you work – and your organization.

Most suitable for: If you want to discover the Thinking Environment, this is a good place to start. If you have some experience already, this course will enable you to bring it more confidently into your work. This course is also the first-step to qualifying as a Time to Think Facilitator.

Group size: 6-8 participants

Number of Days: 2 full days (9.00am-4.30pm)

“We should create a Thinking Environment because it works. Because everything depends on it. And because if you get good at it, you have a tool for life.” - Nancy Kline
